ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE VIRGINIA ADVERTISER (FOR THE COUNTRY.)

THURSDAYS and SATURDAYS, at $6 per annum—payable in advance.

SCENE AT A COUNTY POLITICAL MEETING, in Caroline county Va. | From the Fredericksburg Star. | Chastain White was loudly called for, and responded by stating that it seem-cd needless to add anything to what had al-ready been so well said. "For who," said Mr. White, "would dare to defend the Radical party."

time.' Mr. White-Of course you will. Why, you have a fat revenue office, and who could expect you to strike the hand that puts money in your pocket. I mean, what Virginian would defend the Radical party?

Tukey here responded: "I will, all the Tukey—"Mr. White, one of the candidates on the Conservative ticket of Caroline has approached me and asked for the Radical nomination."

This announcement produced the wildest excitement. Every man rose from his seat and sprang upon tables, desks, benches and other available clevations. The great mass swayed to and fro like an angry ocean, and the fierce shout went up from a thousand throats, 'Name the man! Name the man.

Tukey-"It all the candidates will get upon the stand and disolaim the fact, I will call the name." Here Mr. Moncure leaped upon a desk and made his disclaimer. Mr. Marshall followed, and the excitement waxed fierce and hot.

Tukey then said: "Mr. Marshall is the man.' Mr. Marshall (who is one of the most popular men in the county and a man of inflexible integrity) mounted a desk in painful proximity to Tukey and, amid breathless silence, with Roman firmness, fixing his eyes on Tukey, said Fellow-citizens, the statement is a lie, and Tukey is the author of it.

Tukey—Mr. Marshall, I am surprised that you, being a member of the church, should say such words.

Here a tempest of hoots, hisses, jeers and scoffs prevailed. When order was restored, Mr White concluded his excellent speech.

GENEROUS BENEFACTION. - The Lyachburg Virginian says:

The following letter was received yesterday by Mr. J. R. McDaniel, of this city, from Gen. N. M. Curtis, late of the U. S. army, who was in command of the post of Lynchburg ties. Office with Brent & Wattles. No. shortly after the close of the war. Gen. Cur tis was a brave and faithful soldier in the Union army, and has shown himself since the war to be capable of magnanimous and chivalrous actions, which endear him to good people of both sections. His letter enclosed a check for $50 for the relief of the sufferers by the flood. Such a gift deserves to be held in faithful and grateful memory.

OGDENBURG, N. Y., Oct. 5th, 1870. My Dear Sir-I have received the sad ac counts of the desolation caused by the recent flood.

B. LLOYD & CO.

ATTORNEYS FOR CLAIMS, PENSION, BOUNTY LAND, &c.

I hope fuller information will show that less suffering and loss of life has been sustained than was at first reported.

I do not know what action will be taken to give temporary relief to the families which have suffered by this calamity, but I am confident suitable provision will be made by your people for the destitute.

Please hand the enclosed check to the proper persons charged with the duty of disbursing your contributions. N. M. CURTIS. Very sincerely yours, your children in your will the more they will have in twenty years afterwards. Wealth inherited should be an incentive to action; instead of that it is an incentive to sloth. The only money that does a man good is that which he earns himself. The week after he came into possession, the pictures were traded | BRENTSVILLE, PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY, VA was a connoisseur in fine arts, while his son was a conpoisseur only in brandy and three minute horses. In all probability a year hence will find the property of the latter personage reduced to two shirts and a necktie, with his soul lost in spending what his father lost his soul in saving. THE RICHMOND CAPITOL SUFFERERS. - The committee of the Richmond (Virginia) chamber of commerce having in charge the distribution of the fund for the relief of the sufferers by the capitol disaster on the 27th of April last have made their report. The total amount received from all sources was $80,603 58. Ot this has been been disbursed $77,201 56, leavnot yet disbursed) $3,402 02. The number of persons actually visited, all more or less injurpersons actually visited, all more or less injur-ed, is 199; the number of beneficiaries fami ies my line of business, I am fully prepared, and I or dependent connections of the injured, is 652; the number of widows aided is 31; the number of male survivors who are permanently injured is 17. Among these two latter classes, after due provision has been made for all others. ers, and a proper classification determined upon according to the number of the family, the extent of destitution, &c., a final distribution was made of the remaining funds.

KNOTT.—A short time since, a Mr. Knott was tried in an interior county of Georgia for a violation of law. The verdict of the jury was : "We find the defendent Knott guilty." The Judge was at a loss whether to sentence Knott or Knott to sentence. He took time to consider. - Lynch. Virg. This reminds us, says the New Commonwealth, of the celebrated duel between Dr. Shott and Col. Knott, in which Shott shot not, and Knott shot Shott; or in other words, Shott was shott and Knott was not. No, we are wrong; Knott shot not, and Shott shot Knott, yet Knott was shot, and Shott was not.

This distressing Affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgencies.
